1. INTRODUCTION

1. Introduction

The XIII South American Games Santa Fe 2026 constitute the region's most important multidisciplinary sports event, bringing together athletes, officials, coaches, judges, volunteers, and spectators from the 15 member countries of the South American Sports Organization (ODESUR).

This Technical Manual has been prepared to provide official, up-to-date, and standardized information to participating delegations, National Olympic Committees, Sports Federations, competition managers, members of the Organizing Committee, and technical authorities.

Its purpose is to ensure a common understanding of the operating, regulatory, sporting, logistical, and administrative processes related to the development of sport within the Games framework. It also serves as a reference document for pre-planning, on-site execution, and post-event evaluation.

1.1. Welcome

I want to greet you as Governor of the Untamed Province of Santa Fe and on behalf of the Organizing Committee of the 13th South American Games Santa Fe 2026. I do so with honor, pride, responsibility and hope.

Honor for hosting in our province more than 4,000 athletes from 15 countries, along with their delegations, families, Olympic committees and authorities of the South American Sports Organization. For 15 days, in the Santa Fe, Rosario and Rafaela venues, 43 sports and 60 disciplines will be played, in a competition that brings the continent together around the values of effort, coexistence and respect.

Santa Fe takes on this challenge from its identity: a province built with work, diversity, cooperation and a vocation for self-improvement. We recognize ourselves as an active part of South America and we understand these Games as a moment of regional integration and gathering.

We open our doors with the will to be responsible hosts and to offer the best conditions for the competitions.

Pride in that the continent has chosen us as the host. That trust implies institutional responsibility that we assume with planning, investment and method. The games leave their legacy: sports culture, installed capacities and an organization that will endure beyond the fifteen days of competition.

Responsibility because each discipline requires clear technical standards, suitable venues and efficient logistics. We are giving our best for these Games, including construction and modernization of sports facilities, which will then be at the service of clubs, federations, schools and communities.

Hope because sport calls, organizes energies and generates opportunities. The Games mobilize employment, strengthen training and dynamize economic and cultural activities. But above all, they promote meeting in public space and consolidate sport as public policy of inclusion and human development.

In this framework, the present Sports Technical Manual constitutes a fundamental tool for the organization and development of each discipline.

Its pages detail the formats and competition systems and various aspects that provide regulatory clarity and predictability for all delegations.

We invite you to experience the 13th South American Games Santa Fe 2026 as a celebration of sport in its broadest sense: competition, integration and respect.

Welcome to Santa Fe, heart of a continent.

Maximiliano Pullaro

Governor of the Province of Santa Fe

1.2. Santa Fe 2026

The 13th South American Games will be held in the province of Santa Fe, Argentine Republic, with official venues in the cities of Rosario, Santa Fe, and Rafaela, and complementary sub-venues defined according to sports requirements.

Each venue has been selected based on its sports infrastructure, accessibility, organizational capacity, connectivity, urban facilities, hotel offering, and tradition in holding national and international events.

2.9. Technical congress

The Technical Delegates Meeting will be held on a date to be confirmed at the headquarters of the Organizing Committee of the Games.

The Judges Meeting will be scheduled to be confirmed at the headquarters of the Organizing Committee of the Games.

Up to 2 (two) representatives from each NOC may attend the Technical Congress, one with voting rights, along with an interpreter or assistant, if necessary.

During the technical congress, fundamental aspects for the development of the competitions will be addressed, including adjustments to the current regulations and the final registration of participants by modality. It will also include control of equipment and uniforms, the draw or starting order, and the presentation of circuits or routes as applicable. Passport verification or official documentation may also be carried out if required.

2.10. Use of branding on equipment and sports apparel

The competition uniforms, non-competition uniforms, and sports equipment for the XIII South American Games Santa Fe 2026 must comply with the 'Guidelines for uniforms and sports equipment of the Games' by ODESUR, which meets the requirements of the international federations of each sport.

2.11. Medical information

2.11.1. Doping Control

Doping control tests will be carried out by the Medical Commission of the Organizing Committee of the 13th South American Games Santa Fe 2026 under the rules of the ODESUR Medical Commission and in accordance with its anti-doping rules approved by WADA (World Anti Doping Agency).

ODESUR reiterates its policy to reject, sanction, and discourage, by all means, the use of doping substances and prohibited methods, with the aim of ensuring the healthiest, safest, fairest, and most ethical environment in sports competitions.

The selection of athletes for sample collection, according to the ODESUR anti-doping rule, will be conducted by the ODESUR Medical Commission. The analysis of the samples will be carried out by an accredited laboratory approved by WADA.

Any competitor who refuses to undergo an anti-doping control will commit a violation of the anti-doping rule and may be immediately removed from the Games, withdrawing their credential.

2.11.2. Medical services at the competition and training site

There will be a medical post to provide first aid to athletes and officials at each competition and training site. It will include all necessary safety elements for sports activities.

There will always be ambulances available for cases where it is necessary to transport a member of the event to a health facility.

2.12. Procedure after the competition, mixed zone

The mixed zone is a place through which athletes and technicians pass at the end of the matches, and where credentialed press has the opportunity to hold brief interviews with them.

It is a very valuable space for those media outlets that need to report in their offices at short notice, accelerating contact with the protagonists, and opening up the opportunity for all members (athletes and coaching staff) to be interviewed.

It will be easily accessible to journalists, but it is not a free zone. Barriers or ropes will separate athletes from reporters. At the same time, being a passage area, special attention will be paid to not obstruct the circulation of the rest of the organization.

2.13. Additional information

Climate

During September, Rosario, Santa Fe and Rafaela present a mild climate, with the onset of spring in the southern hemisphere. Average minimum temperatures range from 9°C to 13°C, while maximums typically range between 20°C and 25°C.

It is a month with low probability of heavy rain, although isolated showers can occur. Delegations are advised to bring light outerwear, comfortable clothing, and a raincoat for the cooler or wetter days.
