AVAILABLE POSITION AS WAG COACH IN BERGEN, NORWAY

Bergens Turnforening is a club with long traditions in gymnastics. The club is located in beautiful Bergen, situated on the west coast and the second largest city of Norway, with about 280 000 inhabitants.

The club has approximately 90 artistic gymnasts, evenly divided between girls and boys. We currently have several national team gymnasts, both women and men, who have competed in the European Championships, World Championships, and the Olympics. The club aims to be one of the leading gymnastic clubs in Norway, and to develop gymnasts to a high international level.
A brand-new gymnastics hall equipped with state-of-the-art facilities will be completed in 2029. Until then, Bergens Turnforening will continue to build on its strong community and develop its gymnasts towards their goals.

We are seeking a new head coach for Women´s artistic gymnastics (WAG).

We offer:

- 100% employment
- Immediate start
- Competitive salary by agreement
- Opportunities for professional development
- Freedom with responsibility

Responsibilities:

- Overall responsibility for the sporting framework in artistic gymnastics for WAG
- Plan, execute, and evaluate training for assigned groups
- Develop annual plans for sporting activities
- Mentor and support other coaches, providing a solid foundation for their development
- Participate in competitions and training camps

Qualifications and personal attributes:

- High level of competence and experience at the international level (FIG)
- Emphasis on a sport-related education
- Dedication to the development of high-level gymnasts
- Long-term perspective
- Organizational skills
- Good spotting skills
- Collaborative and loyal
- Proficiency in a Scandinavian language or English, both spoken and written, is an advantage
- Willingness to work within the guidelines and regulations applicable to Norwegian sports

For inquiries and applications with CV, please send to asle@bergensturn.no. All applications will be treated confidentially.