2. 3. COMPETITION FORMAT

This FIG World Cup Competition will be held according to the FIG World Cup series 2019 rules and the FIG Technical Regulations 2019. There will be qualification rounds (Q) and apparatus finals (AF), all gymnasts have to start in the qualifications. Gymnasts will have to execute two vaults in both the qualification and the finals for women and men. Before the start of the competition (qualifications and finals) there will be minimum 2 hours of Warming-up in the Competition Hall. During the competition, all gymnasts can warm up in the warm-up /training area.

During the qualifications and finals, we will NOT follow the Olympic order of the apparatus in MAG gymnastics.

1st QUALIFICATION DAY and 1st FINAL DAY – MAG – FLOOR EX, POMMEL HORSE , PARALEL BARS

2nd QUALIFICATION DAY and 2nd FINAL DAY – MAG – RINGS, HIGH BAR, VAULT

WAG will have Olympic order in qualification and finals

In qualification we will work with 3 MAG-judges panels and 2 WAG-judges-panels in same time

During the qualification there will be touch warm – up on the competition apparatus.

Gymnast will be assigned to groups of five gymnasts in the group.

First group of gymnasts (on first 3 apparatus MAG & first 2 apparatus WAG at the same time, according competition schedule) will take one touch warm up in the competition hall and then compete.

When last gymnast of first group finished, the second group of gymnasts comes in the competition hall (warm up and then compete),then third group,.....

During the finals, according to the FIG Technical Regulations for Competitions III, there will be NO touch warm-up on the competition apparatus.

The best 8 gymnasts from the qualifications will compete in the finals. In addition, if the Local Organizing Committee has not qualified with minimum 1 man and 1 woman, it may nominate maximum 1 man and 1 woman. Maximum participation in the finals is therefore 8 + 1 gymnasts on one apparatus for men and on one apparatus for women, and 8 gymnasts per apparatus on all other apparatus.

2. 4. START OF EXERCISE

In the warm-up area, delegation hostesses/hosts will inform groups and collect them, and tell them when to leave for the competition area. Please follow these instructions PROMPTLY and get going when you are told to.
