Art. 4.11 Principal tasks of the LOC

Art. 4.11.14 Media Officer

4.11.14 and 4.11.15: changes to be valid from 2018

A local Media Liaison Officer must be appointed in consultation with the FIG Media Department. The Officer should be a member of the LOC or, otherwise, in constant communication with the LOC to ensure efficient and sufficient facilities for the representatives of the Media.

Art. 4.11.15 Media and Publicity Provisions

Publicity on Clothing and National Emblem

Advertising and national emblems on competitive clothing are prescribed according to the FIG Rules for Advertising and Publicity as approved by the EC. Stipulations concerning the national emblems are also included in these Rules. For the OG and the YOG the IOC Rules have to be respected.

The head of delegation or another mandated delegation member will be given the opportunity to have the competition clothing checked by a group consisting of a representative of the FIG Marketing and TV-rights Commission, a representative of the respective Technical Committee and an FIG staff member at a time to be determined and published in the Work Plan.

Press and Media Obligations

At FIG events, federations are responsible for the proper and timely appearance of their gymnasts at press and media opportunities, such as the mixed zone and press conferences. Gymnasts must appear in the interview area as outlined in the Workplan. Upon non-appearance of their athletes, the respective NF will be fined for each infraction.*

The fine of CHF 2'000.- has been fixed by the Council in 2002.

Art. 7.10.3 World Championships

b) Rhythmic Gymnastics

Entry into effect immediately

Federations participating with individual gymnast(s) and a group may present one (1) judge with a valid category of RGI brevet and one (1) judge with a valid category of RGG brevet.

Federations participating with individual gymnasts only may present one qualified judge with a valid RGI brevet (cat. 1, 2 or 3).

Federations participating with a group only may present one judge with a valid RGG brevet (cat. 1, 2 or 3).

The selection of judges is made by draw during the Judges' instruction and the judges meetings prior to each competition as follows:

- For Individual qualifications and All-Around competition as well as for Group general competition the D Judges are drawn among the judges with cat. 1 or 2 (preference is given to the judges with cat. 1) at the beginning of the respective Judges' instruction.
- For Individual and Group apparatus finals the D Judges are drawn among the judges with cat. 1 or 2 (preference is given to the judges with cat. 1) just before the beginning of each phase of competition

NFs whose two judges are called upon to judge may decide in which competitions they will be officiating.

In Apparatus Finals, only judges whose federations do not have competitors, nor a No 1 reserve gymnast taking part, may be called upon to judge. The selection is made by draw.

If there are insufficient judges, the TC decides the process for designating the necessary number of judges.
