

Elite coach MAG or WAG

Job description

Organization

You will be employed as an Elite Coach within Gefion Gymnastics Elite section led by Gefion's Board's sports director, where you will be working in close collaboration with the other Talent and Elite team coaches (MAG and WAG).

You will refer directly to the Gefion Gymnastics' Head coach Marian Rizan.

The job

The coaching position is a full-time position (30-37 hours a week). In addition, you will be expected to join the athletes when they participate in competitions, camps and other gymnastic activities.

You will act as assistant coach for Head Coach Marian Rizan and the WAG/MAG Elite Team, and you will be responsible for Gefion Gymnastics' WAG or MAG Talent Team (up to 16 years old).

Responsibilities

- To plan and organize the daily training sessions.
- To develop individual goals and training plans for the Talent team gymnasts in accordance with the ATK (Age Related Training concept), and to implement the plans.
- To participate as coach in meets, tests, development/training camps as well as relevant courses.
- To participate in meetings with the Board, coaching team, gymnasts and parents.
- To participate in Gefion Gymnastics' annual season finale shows.

Other provisions

As a coach, you will have a relatively high degree of freedom in your efforts to achieve the goals of the team and the association.

Gefion Gymnastics will support your participation in relevant vocational courses and other sporting activity.

Place of work

Your primary place of work will be at the Gefion Gymnastics' permanent gym in the public sporting facilities Grøndal MultiCenter in the Copenhagen city district of Northwest (NV).

In addition, some travel activity is to be expected.

Working time

The average working hours per week will in normal weeks be 30 hours +. The majority of your work hours will be placed in the 'after school' hours. Some weekend work is also to be expected.

Contact

For more information contact Gefion Gymnastics' vice-chairman, Jens-Peter Hallund jph@gymgefion.dk and for job applications info@gymgefion.dk

www.gymgefion.dk